CONDUCT AND EXPECTATIONS

The Texas A&M Lettermen's Association is dedicated to fostering an enjoyable environment for all Members and guests. To ensure a positive atmosphere, it is imperative that all individuals conduct themselves in a well-mannered, non-aggressive, and courteous manner towards fellow Members, guests, and staff. Failure to adhere to these behavioral expectations may lead to removal, admission suspension or termination of Club privileges. We appreciate everyone's commitment to creating a welcoming and respectful community within our organization.

Member must directly and actively supervise young guests/children. Any Member failing to properly supervise young guests/children will be asked to refrain from bringing young guests/children in the future.

FOOD & BEVERAGES

The Texas A&M Lettermen's Association is pleased to offer complimentary non-alcoholic and limited alcoholic beverages in the Club, starting two hours prior to kick-off and concluding at the end of the third quarter of the football game. We encourage Members and guests to show their appreciation for the exceptional service provided by our bartenders by considering a gratuity. In accordance with TABC regulations, alcoholic beverages are not allowed to leave the premises.

The Texas A&M Lettermen's Association emphasizes a commitment to promoting responsible drinking, and any instances of underage drinking will be dealt with in accordance with applicable laws and regulations, per TABC.

While food service will not be offered within the Club, Members and guests have the option to enter the stadium concourse, purchase food items and return to the Club. We kindly encourage all Members and guests to responsibly dispose of their trash and contribute to maintaining a clean and enjoyable environment for everyone.
